U.W. 1887-1962

On March 4, 1886, the University Bill was signed by the territorial governor, Francis E. Warren, and later that year the cornerstone of Old Main was laid. During the summer of 1887, the first faculty was chosen and on September 6, 1887, the Territorial University was opened. In January of 1891, Wyoming was incorporated as a State University. The first commencement with a graduating class of two was held in June of 1891. In 1894, the colleges of Agriculture, Liberal Arts, and Engineering were established and in 1896 the first graduate degrees were conferred. Wyoming's first summer session was held in 1905 with an enrollment of 27 students. In 1909 the first WYO was published and in 1910, Pi Beta Phi was the first national sorority to be installed at the University of Wyoming. When Wyoming celebrated its 25th Anniversary, the regular school enrollment was 213 and there were twelve degrees conferred.

In 1912, Henry G. Knight was installed as the first Dean at the University of Wyoming as Dean of the College of Agriculture. Alpha Tau Omega became the first national fraternity at Wyoming when it was installed in 1913. R.O.T.C. was begun at Wyoming in 1916. Justus F. Soule became the first Dean of Men in 1920, the same year in which the Law school began. The University of Wyoming was admitted to the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference in 1921 and celebrated its first homecoming a year later. "Branding Iron" was adopted as the name for the school paper in 1923. In 1924, Wyoming was admitted to the Association of Accredited Universities. 1937 saw the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the University. At that time the regular year school enrollment was 1900 with a total of 222 degrees conferred.

Wyoming's third 25 years saw more advancements than the entire first 50 years. A charter for Phi Beta Kappa was granted to Wyoming in 1940. The Natural Resources Research Institute was established in 1943. Also in 1943, Wyoming won the N.C.A.A. basketball championship. In 1945, the Graduate School was founded. In 1946, the College of Pharmacy was established and in 1947 the College of Commerce & Industry and the Division of Adult Education and Community Service were established. The first Ph. D. degree was conferred at this time also. Wyoming won its first Skyline Conference Football championship in 1949. In 1953, the Western Interstate Commission on Higher Education was established and in 1955 the Division of Business and Economic Research was established. 1957 saw the establishment of the College of Nursing and the School of American Studies. The Colleges of Liberal Arts became the College of Arts and Sciences in 1956 and instituted its Honors Program in 1958. An $11.7 million building program was launched by the University in 1959. By 1961, the regular student enrollment had reached 4100 with a summer school enrollment of 2200 students. There were a total of 967 degrees conferred in 1961. This year is the joint celebration of the 75th anniversary of the University of Wyoming and the 100th anniversary of the Land Grant College Act.

To the Faculty and Students of the University of Wyoming:

As the University of Wyoming has grown, not only in physical size but in scholastic stature, the pride that is mine because I can lay claim to having graduated there grows in direct proportion, and I am apt to become somewhat of a bore by insisting on telling everyone that my entire family graduated from the University of Wyoming. We may make more of it than we should, but I anticipate no change in our conduct.

Since my graduation, one of the facts that has been forced upon me repeatedly is that an education, or the beginning of one, is of small value unless it happens to be a marketable product; and it is only marketable if it is made up of knowledge not the common property of all.

A vast supply of this marketable knowledge is at the University for you to take, and you can have as much of it as you want without depleting the supply. It verges on being tragic that your future success or failure is so closely related to your ability and willingness to take it now, not to wish you had later.

Sincerely yours

Jack R. Gage

February 27, 1962

TO THE STUDENTS:

As members of the 1961-62 student body of the University of Wyoming, you have had the opportunity of joining in the 75th anniversary celebration. For those of us on the faculty and staff, the celebration has brought a sense of accomplishment, a feeling of having reached an important milestone in the history of a great University. I hope you also feel a deep sense of pride in the institution which will soon be your Alma Mater.

All of us owe a debt of gratitude to the early pioneers of the Wyoming Territory, through whose vision and determination the University came into being, and to the dedicated men and women whose efforts assured the perpetuation of the struggling young institution against overwhelming odds. They left a heritage on which those who came in later years could build with confidence.

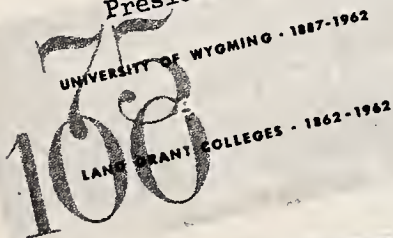

The high academic rating the University now enjoys; the national, and even international, recognition some of its programs have received; the excellent facilities provided by a beautiful and functional plant; a steadily growing enrollment and increased service to people throughout the state -- these are some of the evidences that the University in its 75th year has reached maturity. They are also some of the reasons why you can be proud of your University.

But in today's rapidly changing world no educational institution can rest on past achievements. If the centennial celebration, and other milestones that follow, are to find the University with the same high standing it enjoys today, there must be continuous effort on the part of faculty, staff and trustees. There must be adequate support from the Legislature and other sources. And there must be continuing interest on the part of alumni and friends throughout the state and nation.

As you make the most of the educational opportunities offered you here, I trust that your interest and pride in the University will increase. For it is your University, and its future depends in large measure on you.

Sincerely yours,

Interfraternity Council

Row 1: Bob Melonuk, Dave Carmichael, Dick Ludwig, Ron Peterson, Mick Crouse, Bill Shaffer. Row 2: Ernest Halle, Jim Gidley, Bruce Cody, Lyle Rickert, Rick Ludlow, Bill Sutto, Jim Bonsell, Jim Mateson.

The Interfraternity Council is the governing body for the ten fraternities on the University of Wyoming campus. Three men from each fraternity compose the membership of the council, including the president and two elected representatives from each fraternity.

The IFC has a triple purpose. One purpose is to further the interest of the University and all fraternities on the campus; another is to foster closer co-operation and better understanding between fraternities and the third purpose is to consider all questions of interfraternity relationship and questions of interest to the college world as they affect fraternities and their members. Throughout the year the IFC assists the registrar in keeping his fraternity files up to date.

One of the highlights of the year is the IFC dance in the spring. This dance is an annual affair at which time the University of Wyoming's "Ugly Man" is chosen.

Officers for the IFC this year included Ron Peterson, President; Dick Ludwig, Vice President; and Mick Crouse, Secretary-Treasurer. The advisor for the group is A. L. Keeney, Dean of Men.

Associated Women Students

All women students enrolled at the University of Wyoming are governed by the A.W.S. board. The purpose of this organization is to help women students develop character and leadership. Assisting Mary Fuji-kawa, A.W.S. president, are Kaky Logan, presidential-delegate-at-large; Sue Bardo, vice-president; Veronica Peeks, delegate-at-large; Bonnie Brown, secretary; and Carolyn Wright, treasurer. The leadership workshop, A.W.S. Dance, and the A.W.S. Board Banquet are the major activities sponsored by this association. Miss E. Luella Galliver, Dean of Women; Miss Thouin; and Miss Schunck are the advisors for A.W.S.

Panhellenic Council

The senior Panhellenic Council functions as a vital intra-sorority coordinating group on our campus. Each sorority sends two women, who have a minimum 2.75 grade average, to serve on the council. Their job is to present problems and solutions of interest to all greek women. Besides promoting a panhellenic spirit among the greek groups, the council serves as their governing body, making rules concerning all sororities. To keep rush week running smoothly is the foremost activity of the Panhellenic Council. Recognizing, though, the value of fair competition to achieve higher standards, the council presents a scholarship trophy to the group with the highest grade average for the preceding two semesters. The last winner of the cup was Delta Delta Delta.

The first week of school members of the Wyo staff begin their various sections, work for some which will last until the yearbook's final deadline. Working with individual student pictures is the first project of the staff. From then on staff members are occupied with depicting and writing copy for every aspect of student academic life. Throughout the year the staff is connected with almost every phase of production including photography and lay-out. Only when the yearbook is distributed to the student body in the late spring does the Wyo staff really consider the production completed.

Each Friday the UW student body eagerly awaits the distribution of the weekly newspaper. Little does the average reader realize of the work done by the B I staff during the week to prepare the paper for publication. Early in the week, reporters are busy gathering current news items for their stories. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights one can see lights burning late in the BI office as staff members do final proofing on the week's edition. When the lights are finally extinguished, staff members settle back waiting for Friday to see their work in print. Despite controversial issues brought to light in the paper, which are really its life-blood, the BI staff can be congratulated for a job well done.

March 5, 1962

Mr. J. Robert Marshall
Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity
University of Wyoming
Laramie, Wyoming

Dear Robert:

First I want to thank you for the opportunity and the honor of serving as Judge of the WYO Beauty Contest. Needless to say, I enjoyed every minute of it. After looking over the gorgeous stack of photos you sent me, I can understand why you chose to delegate the responsibility to an outsider!

I have given very serious consideration to my selection of the five most beautiful women on the Wyoming campus. I assure you it wasn't an easy job. As you can probably imagine, I am asked to judge a number of beauty contests every year, but I can't remember one in which the decisions were so difficult to make! Of course, appraising pictures of pretty girls has become something of an art with us here at PLAYBOY, but feminine beauty (like all the other good things in life) is still a matter of individual taste.

And so, here are my selections:

1. Number 4
2. Number 10
3. Number 33
4. Number 22
5. Number 31

Again, thanks so much for the pleasure and opportunity of serving as your judge.

Sincerely,

PLAYBOY MAGAZINE

Any single girl at the University of Wyoming is eligible to enter the contest for Wyoming Queen. The pictures are numbered and sent to a judge who doesn't know any of the girls. This year the judge was Hugh Hefner, editor of "Playboy".

Out of thirty four candidates, Mr. Hefner narrowed the field to fifteen semi-finalists. They were: Vanona Bailey, Martha Hartman, Dale Lockhart, Linda Moore, Judy Reyner, Doris Schlatter, Jo Ann Slack, Bonnie Smith, Nancy Tate, Kathy Thompson, Linda Tollefson, Suzanne Trowe, Bobbie Thatcher, Deanne Wellman, and Judy Ziegler. Out of these girls he chose "Five Wyoming Beauties" whose pictures you will see on the next few pages.

Collegiate 4-H

Any college student who has formerly been a member of the 4-H program can be a member of the Wyoming Collegiate 4-H Club. This year's activities included a hay ride, carolling and Christmas party, and a debate on International Foreign Exchange Program vs. Peace Corps. A May banquet concluded the year with the presentation of awards and installation of officers. 1961-1962 officers are President, Gerald Beierle; Vice president, Peny Goodson; Secretary, Sue Kleen; Treasurer, Louis Dillinger; Publicity chairman, Lola Horton; Social chairman, Glenda Lamb; Editor, Linda Sheehan; Advisor, Lael R. Harrison.

Cosmopolitan Club

Anyone having an interest in sharing a fellowship with students from countries throughout the world is welcomed as a member of Cosmopolitan Club. Under the guidance of President Josh Chinwah, Secretary Elvira Garcia, and Treasurer Peggy Cover, the group held a party before Christmas and sponsored their annual International Day in April. A dinner with dishes from many lands, entertainment, and various displays concluded the day.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association, whose purpose is to foster interest in sports for women on campus, is open to any interested woman student enrolled in the university. To qualify for membership each girl must participate in at least one activity during the academic year. Among those activities available are field hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball, swimming, tennis, and badminton. Those who have earned the required number of points by participating in the various sports offered, holding an office, or by attending play days at the schools in this area, are awarded emblems, letters, and sweaters. Miss Louise Thouin, professor of Physical Education, is the adviser for the W.A.A. Jan Talbert, president, is assisted by Carolyn Wright, vice-president; Diana Duncan, A.W.S. representative; Patsy Hittle, sports manager; and Jan Curry, secretary-treasurer.

Outing Club

Dave Schnute explores a jewel cave.

UW Outing Club provides one of the best opportunities for college students to engage in outdoor activities. During the year, the group takes various trips, out of state, and sometimes even out of the country. The annual Winter Carnival is sponsored by this group. The diverse activities of Outing Club offer members opportunities to participate in sports including skiing, bicycling, and even parachute jumping.

Young Republicans

This group informs the students on campus of the ideals of the Republican Party. They provide an opportunity for them to find political expression and recognition. It is also a training place for young people to be effective political workers and to cooperate in the election of the Republican Party's nominees. Open and free discussion, analysis, and dissemination of information concerning political affairs are brought forth. They sponsor speakers from the Republican Party and other interesting persons who speak on current affairs. Jan Jacksa was a contestant in the National Miss Y. R. Contest.

Rodeo Club

Wyoming Rodeo Club sponsored a new dance this year, The Powder River Ball. At this time Patsy Hittle was selected as Powder River Belle. Under the direction of President, Jerry Rankin and Secretary, Jane Williams, the group sponsored the spring rodeo and assisted the Ag Club in the Little International Stock Show. In fall some of the group traveled to San Francisco where they ranked high in national competition. Through out the year the group enters rodeo events in Wyoming, Colorado, South Dakota, and Nebraska. Besides the Powder River Ball, a spring dance is also held by the club.

Student Education Association

The Student Education Association is composed of all interested University students who are preparing and planning to become teachers. The purpose of this organization is to deepen the interest of capable students in teaching as a career. President of S.E.A. is Karen Rushmore. Carole Osgard is vice president; Jackie Igo, treasurer; Sharon Rand, treasurer; and Carol Bowman, historian. Frank Kraus, Assistant Dean in the College of Education, is the group's advisor.

Lutheran Students Association

Any student interested in the Lutheran group may belong to the Lutheran Student Association. Their purpose is to deepen the students' understanding of Christianity and fellowship. For social activities during the year they hold a Christmas dinner, Halloween party, and April Fools banquet. Thomas Moore is president of this group with Bill Schmidt as vice-president; Pat Peil, secretary; and Rockney Skinner, treasurer.

Religion In Life Week Council

Among the many facets of campus life, religion must be included as an important part of this life. The Religion in Life Week Council is composed of delegates from the various religious groups of the UW campus. They promote and sponsor the Religion in Life Week on our campus each year. President of this group is Dave Greer with Richard Bardo as vice-president, Doris Nickerson as secretary, and Linda Harmston as treasurer.

Wesley

The Wesley Foundation provides a place for worship and fellowship for every college student. Its main purpose is to be a "home away from home" and to supplement the student's educational needs with religious values by both religious and social activities. These ideals were partially accomplished at their much remembered events such as the Rocky Mountain Tri-State retreat in the spring, banquets held at the beginning and the end of the school year. The Wesley Foundation doors are always open to anyone who is willing to accept and participate in its activities.

Lambda Delta Sigma [Omega]

The women work together to promote the ideals of intellectuality, religion, cultural life, fellowship and leadership. Many events highlighted their year such as the Pledge Dance, Christmas Tree Party, Pledging, Installation, and Sweet-heart Ball. Their members attempt to live up to the standards set forth by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and to live by these standards day by day. It also provides fellowship among the women who are attempting their goals in life.

Newman Club

Spiritual guidance may be sought at the Newman Club. Through their speakers and discussions, many problems of the students are brought forth and the answers are sought. Newman Club gives the student an excellent opportunity for spiritual education and a place for social activities. Many good times are remembered by this group especially the retreats and conventions. Most of all they learn by working together to accomplish friendship regardless of creed, race, or color.

Phi Upsilon Omicron

Through this home economics honorary the girls give their services to the community and develop interests in their profession. Freshmen's scholarship is encouraged by giving an award to the freshman with the highest grade average.

Phi Upsilon Omicron develops the future homemakers of America to go into business positions and to make the homes of tomorrow. Miss Louise Wesswick, collegiate advisor, guides the girls with the help of Carolyn Gilmer, Vice-president and Jo Ann Legoski, Secretary.

Kappa Pi Delta Phi

KPDP is one of the newer organizations on Campus having only been organized last year. This is an honorary for senior women and impartial chaperones. Some of the more notable achievements this year are the acquisition of pins and also a golden keg. Whenever and wherever the members happen to be together a meeting is called to order. These meetings are usually held downtown in various business establishments to promote better relations between the townspeople and the university students. The colors of the group are amber and white. Serving the group very capably this year were Donna Evans, Keeper of the Golden Keg; Darla Cave, Keeper of the Silver Keg; Josie Fernold, Ritualistic Interpolator and Nini Simon, Honorable Minor Conditioner. Due to many of the members doing their student teaching second semester, the club did not function regularly and several were absent when the picture was taken.

Iron Skull

Iron Skull is a junior campus service honorary. Its membership is composed of delegates from each living group. To become a member, one must maintain a 2.5 scholastic average and be active in campus affairs. One of the group's purposes is to provide additional leadership development for its members. The chief function of this honorary is its contributions to the annual UW Homecoming festivities. The members traditionally sponsor the Iron Skull Skid, one of the biggest dances of the year. Iron Skull also plans and coordinates the Homecoming Sing at which campus groups sing in competition. Awards are given by Iron Skull to outstanding members at the end of the year. Serving as officers for this group were John Allen, president; Vic Duran, vice-president; Thelma Hansen, secretary and Carolyn Wright, treasurer.

Alpha Tau Alpha

Alpha Tau Alpha was busy with activities for the year 1961-1962. The highlights remembered are the turkey raffle around Thanksgiving, honor banquet, family night, spring banquet, and the national convention in Kansas City. They are bound together by mutual interest in agriculture, promoting the profession, and learning the tools of the vocation. Alpha Tau Alpha's purpose is to promote the highest ideals and standards of agriculture education and a more intimate acquaintance and closer relationship with men who have chosen the profession of teaching agriculture. They have tremendous challenges ahead of them with the responsibility of human welfare and prosperity of our country.

Nu Upsilon Omega

Nu Upsilon Omega is composed of students in nursing. Every year they sponsor a service project, and the one this year was the showing of a film on cancer to the student body. This organization also played host to the State Nursing Convention held in Laramie this year. Officers for Nu Upsilon Omega include Rosemarie Test, president; Perry Kay Somer, vice-president; Linda Call, secretary; and Sara Crane, treasurer.

Kappa Kappa Psi

Kappa Kappa Psi is an honorary whose membership includes male members of the University of Wyoming band. Requirements for membership are high academic accomplishment and worthwhile contribution to the university band. Major activities of Kappa Kappa Psi include assisting at High School Band Day in the fall and arranging the Band Banquet. Officers are Don Bookout, president; Dick Vanderburg, vice-president; John Dineen, secretary; and Bob Melonuk, treasurer. Kappa Kappa Psi's advisor is C. P. Seltenrich, Director of Bands.

Potter Law Club

Potter Law Club is an organization of full time College of Law students. The major purpose of Potter Law Club is to provide for an extra-curricular legal education to its members, with a social calendar suited to an advanced professional student group. Outstanding events of the organization this year were the fall dinner-dance and the spring awards banquet in April. Officers for this year were Frank Andrews, chancellor; John Kruse, vice chancellor; and Hugh Duncan, secretary-treasurer. The advisor for Potter Law Club is E. George Rudolph, professor of law.

Mortar Board

One of the most outstanding accomplishments in any college girl's life is to be a member of Mortar Board, Senior Women's Honorary. Eleven senior women were chosen for this high honor: Judy Anderson, Susan Bardo, Joye Brown, Mary Fujikawa, Mary Gould, Laura Henderson, Joan Layman, Jo Ann Legoski, Kaky Logan, Sue Ann Morgan, and Molly Sampson. Having high scholarship and outstanding leadership as its achievement, the members can devote their efforts toward various service projects. Mortar Board awards annually the Nellie Tayloe Ross Scholarship, holds the Mortar Board and Senior Women's Banquets, and publishes a student handbook. Girls listed on the group's Recognition List are honored each spring at the Recognition Tea. Each year Mortar Board has charge of Torchlight Laurels, the awards program for outstanding women students. Officers this year are: President, Joan Layman; Secretary, Molly Sampson; Treasurer, Jo-Ann Legoski; Editor, Sue Ann Morgan.

Rho Chi

The distinction of being in the upper 20% of the class at the end of the junior year in pharmacy also serves as the qualification for membership in Rho Chi, pharmacy honorary. New on our campus, the Beta Phi chapter earned its charter from the national association on May 19, 1961. November 16, 1961, marked the day of the chapter's first initiation ceremony. As evidenced by the prerequisite for membership, sound scholarship is the basis of this organization. Rho Chi seeks also to promote a scholarly fellowship between faculty and students of pharmacy. Dr. William E. Johnson, professor of pharmacology, is the advisor for the group. Its officers are Jody Fredricks Stewart, president; Dr. Jack N. Bone, vice president; Joan Kosmicke, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Kaye Cheney, historian.

A campus group that is striving for membership in the national organization is A.Ph.A.; the pharmacy honorary. The A.Ph.A. functions as a stimulus to pharmacy students by sponsoring special speakers on pharmaceutical programs and presenting awards at an honors banquet held each year in May. Last year at the banquet Sara Burdick and John Zell shared the laurels as outstanding freshmen. By sponsoring these activities, the organization hopes to stimulate a professional attitude toward pharmacy. The A.Ph.A.

doesn't limit itself to pure professionalism. Knowing the importance, too, of the lighter side, it holds two yearly social events, usually picnics held in the fall and spring. The officers of this up and coming group are Kenneth L. Deines, president; James Laughrey, vice president; Joan Kosmicke, treasurer; Dorothy Horton, secretary; and Louise Stump, historian. Watching and guiding the progress are the organization's advisors, Dean David O'Day and William D. Hardigan, assistant professor of pharmacy.

Phi Delta Chi

Phi Delta Chi is the national honor group of pharmacy majors. To be a member requires a 2.5 grade average. Dave McWilliams is president of this group with Frank Viola acting as vice president and Randy Tonelli as treasurer. Activities during the year are the pledge banquet and the pharmaceutical jewelry sale. Acting as advisor of Phi Delta Chi is Dr. Tom Field.

Chimes

Scholarship, interest, leadership, active campus participation, and good standing in college activities are the prerequisites for membership in Chimes, junior women's honorary. Possessing the above qualifications, these junior women strive to orient freshmen girls by utilizing their well-balanced knowledge of campus life.

Chimes is primarily a service organization, and its activities are built around a theme of service and assistance. Aside from orienting freshmen girls, the Chimes are always willing to counsel and aid women students and to serve their university in any manner possible.

Capably serving Chimes as officers this year were: Mary Guthrie, president; Lola Horton, vice-president; Carole Osgard, secretary; Kay March, treasurer; and, Mary Jane Urbigkit, AWS representative.

Sigma Tau

Sigma Tau is an engineering honorary composed of students of all engineering divisions who are in the upper third of the junior and senior classes. The purpose of this organization is to promote scholarship and excellence in engineering by encouragement and recognition. John Gries is President; Frank Eathorne, Vice-President; Orval Harrison, Secretary; Ken Wolfe, Treasurer; and Robert White, Historian.

Activities include fall and spring initiation and the engineering awards banquet in May. The 1961 outstanding freshman in engineering award went to Paul Nichols. R.K. Beach won the outstanding faculty member award and R.M. Sensintaffer of Casper won the outstanding alumni award.

Robert L. Champlin, instruction in Civil Engineering, and R.A. Morgan, Assistant Dean of the Engineering College are advisors for Sigma Tau.

The purpose of the students of Agricultural Engineers is to encourage the study of agricultural engineering. This year, they attended the regional ASAE meeting. President of this group is Ted Loudon, John Wasserburger, Vice-President; Bill Locker, Secretary - Treasurer. Advisor for this group, which is in its first year on this campus, is George Wilson.

This joint engineering branch is composed of students preparing for the profession of engineering or related science. The objective of the organization is the dissemination of knowledge of the theory and practice of all aspects of electrical engineering and allied fields as well as the furtherance of the professional development of the student. This group holds an annual spring picnic and field trips throughout the year. Chris Catsimanes won the AIEE Outstanding Student Member Certificate and Mike Rodda won the joint-branch honor book award.

Aeronautical science is a field which offers many interesting, technical, and diverse topics for students to acquaint themselves with. In the Institute of Aeronautical Science students, primarily those in the engineering field, are introduced to the latest developments and advancements in the field of aeronautical science.

The institute stimulates further interest throughout the year by honoring the composer of the best non-technical paper dealing with aeronautics. Of course academics are constantly stressed, and yearly the institute honors the student who earns the highest grade average in the field of aeronautics during his junior and senior years.

All activities throughout the year do not deal exclusively with aeronautical science. The members of the institute lend their assistance to the Engineers' Ball and also find other activities to keep them busy.

AIA is made up of students enrolled in Architectural Engineering at the University of Wyoming. The role of AIA is to acquaint students with the practical professions of architecture and engineering. In order to do so the AIA has a number of field trips each year designed to create further interest in the organization. This years' officers include Ted C. Gertsch, president, and Dean Smith, secretary-treasurer. The faculty advisor is O. G. Woody, professor in the civil and architectural engineering department.

American Society of Civil Engineers is made up of students majoring in civil engineering. Included among their projects this year were the paper contest in which members submitted papers in the field of civil engineering, and displays at the engineering open house. At the Spring Banquet awards were given for the most outstanding chapter member for the past four years, the member with the highest scholastic average, and the Svenson Structural Design Award. ASCE also sponsored a field trip to Denver where plants connected with civil engineering were visited. Officers for the organization included Frank Holliday, president; John Moore, vice-president; Lynn Brown, secretary; and Floyd Foresman, treasurer. Dr. D. R. Lamb is the advisor for the group.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Sigma Delta Chi

Pi Delta Epsilon, Journalism Honorary, is composed of editors and business managers of campus student publications and second semester sophomore journalism majors who have a 2.5 grade average or better. The Gridiron Banquet in March, sponsored jointly with Sigma Delta Chi, is the major event held by this honorary. The purpose of the organization is to aid in improving campus publications. Officers are Vince Vukelich, president; Donna Hardy, vice president; and Donna Golden, secretary. Pi Delta Epsilon advisors are W.R. Biggs and J.W. Milner.

Sigma Delta Chi, national men's professional journalism society, is comprised of those men who are interested in making a career of journalism in editorial work for radio, newspapers, or magazines. Two major activities of the organization, held jointly with Pi Delta Epsilon, are the Gridiron Banquet in March and a fieldtrip in May. The president of Sigma Delta Chi is Eugene Bryan. Other officers include Jack Childers, vice president; Vince Vukelich, secretary; and J. W. Milner, treasurer. Advisors for the groups are W. R. Biggs and J. W. Milner.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi is composed of upperclass and graduate men and women in the College of Education with a high academic standing. The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, and to recognize outstanding contributions to education. Major activities of Kappa Delta Pi include programs for schools for the blind, deaf, and gifted, and for industrial schools for boys and girls; donation of two scholarships; and a project for help to a foreign country. Although freshmen and sophomores are not eligible for membership, a banquet presentation is given to the student from each class with the highest grade average.

University Brass Ensemble

Downs, Ed Heller, Don Murphy, Jay Dee Schaefer. Row 2: Edgar Lewis, Dean Smith.

The University Brass Ensemble includes male and female performers on brass instruments with suitable performance ability. The ensemble presents one public concert each semester with the performance of good music written especially for brass instruments. Edgar J. Lewis, associate professor of music, is the director of the ensemble.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia

Any male interested in and furthering the cause of music is eligible for membership in Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Besides furthering the appreciation of the reality of music in each person's everyday living, this group conducts their Sinfonia dance in the fall, a pledge recital, and an American Composers Recital during the spring. The Phi Mu Alpha Award is presented to an outstanding member each year. Dr. Allan A. Willman, chairman, Division of Music, and Edgar J. Lewis, Brass Division, serve as advisors for the group.

University Chorus and Orchestra during a combined performance.

George Gunn, University Chorus director.

The Oratorio Chorus, directed first term by George Gunn and second term by Mrs. Lucienne Schwartz, is composed of 70 voices using University students, townspeople, and faculty members. No voice try-outs are needed and membership is open to all university students.

The University Orchestra, under the direction of Edgar Lewis, is composed of 45 players, who are qualified student personnel and townspeople chosen by audition. The Orchestra presents four or five concerts each year featuring the most talented music students and therefore fulfills the functions of a University and community Orchestra.

Symphonic and

The Marching Band this season, numbered 120 members and is the largest on record at Wyoming. It is open to all university students who are interested and can fit into their schedules. The band rehearses daily throughout the football season and prepares shows for all the home games and takes an average of two trips per season to appear at games away from home. The marching band is perhaps the most spirited and closely-knit student group on the campus and contributes a great deal to the general student body spirit at athletic events. The band is under the direction of Charles Seltenrich assisted by student directors Don Bookout and Jay Schaefer. The drum major this past season was Jay Holland and the majorettes, under the leadership of head majorette Joline Moretti, were Joyce Moses, Barbara Wimpenny, Anita Brown, Billie Hacker, Bonnie Lee Barger and Joan Selmer.

The Symphonic Band is essentially the marching band moved indoors. The band is open to all university students who can demonstrate a reasonable proficiency on their instruments. The general policy is not to eliminate students through auditions but to let them eliminate themselves if they find that they cannot adequately handle the music being performed. The band appears at all home basketball games and presents formal concerts during the second semester. This season's band numbers 102 members and is the largest in the history of bands at the university. Charles Seltenrich, associate professor of music, conducts the band and is assisted by two student directors, Don Bookout and Jay Schaefer. Librarians for the past two seasons have been Marshall Watne and Jerry Rehfuß.

The Chamber Band

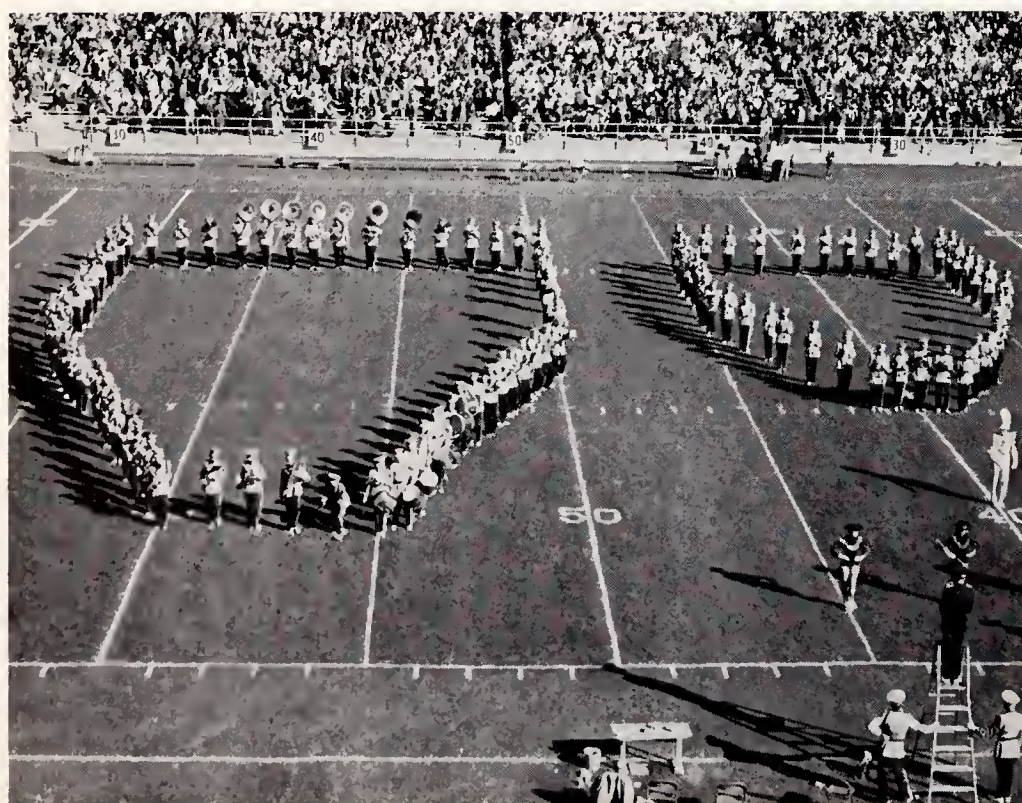

The Chamber Band, under the direction of Edgar J. Lewis, Jr., is a band of fixed instrumentation and is limited to 46 players. Members of the band are chosen by audition by Professor Lewis and director of bands, Charles Seltenrich. The band is called a chamber band because the instrumentation is such that there is very little doubling of players on parts and thus provides an experience more nearly comparable to chamber music performance. The band studies a high percentage of the newer contemporary compositions for band and presents a concert of contemporary band music each season.

The Publicity Committee is responsible for all publicity for dances, movies, art exhibits, and all other functions sponsored by the union committee. Included in their work is the operation of the sound truck and making posters for the aforementioned publicity. Chairman and vice-chairman for the publicity committee are John Dineen and Jean Georges.

Living Groups

Acacia

Acacia was founded in 1904 by a group of Master Masons and there are now 46 chapters nationally. The word Acacia is the Greek name of an eastern evergreen typifying eternal life. The Wyoming University chapter, composed of 59 actives and pledges, was founded in 1947. Serving the group as vice-president is Warren Pearson; treasurer is Steve York; and Secretary is Sherman Drake.

Robert L. Newton, president;
Mrs. Willa Hamilton, housemother.

The Acacia's dream of having a house on fraternity row has become a reality due to major achievements. Going along with them will be their house mother who holds the record of being a housemother longer than any other on campus.

This year their float placed second in the homecoming parade, but was ruined later by pranksters who set fire to it.

Starting the school year off with a bang the pledges held their Black and Gold Dance which was reigned over by Jerry Scott, their selection for Acacia Sweetheart this year. Soon to follow was their pledge dance, Night on the Nile costume dance, and their spring formal in May.

Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi Omega was founded nationally in 1885 and now has 98 chapters. Beta Kappa chapter was founded on this campus in 1930 and is now composed of 52 actives and pledges. The sorority flower is the red carnation, and its colors are scarlet and olive green. Officers of the group are: Sanda Mayer, vice-president; Sharon Rand, secretary; and Donnell Nicoll, treasurer.

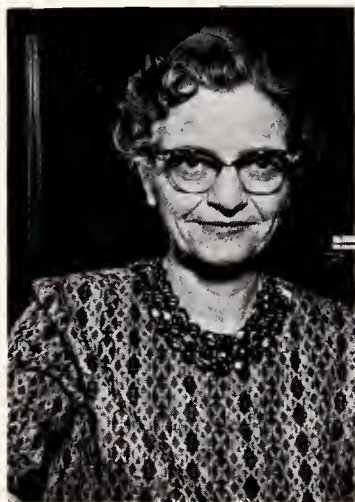

ALPHA CHI OMEGA WINS HOMECOMING SING

During homecoming festivities this year the Alpha Chi's won first place in the women's division of the Homecoming Sing. The veteran's hospital in Cheyenne was entertained by the Alpha Chi's this year when they presented their variety show called Vet's Day.

"Roaring Twenties" was the theme for the Alpha Chi's open house which is held periodically every year. Other social activities of the Alpha Chi's this year included the Christmas open house and the beautifully decorated spring formal, in addition to the "Comic Capers", the theme of this year's pledge dance.

Alpha Tau Omega was founded nationally in 1865, and there are now 158 chapters. Gamma Psi chapter, founded in 1913, has 109 members and pledges this year. Their flower is the white tea rose, and their colors are azure and gold. Serving the group as vice-president is Joe Drew, and secretary-treasurer for this year is Roger Stuber.

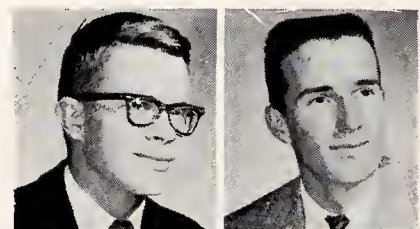

This year the ATO's invited a number of Laramie professors and business leaders to speak at the fraternity house. The discussions included topics, and question and answer periods following the speeches providing interesting viewpoints of members. Other activities of the ATO's included their Province Conclave, the ATO Trio Plus One, and winning first place in the intra-mural bowling league. An outstanding member of ATO this year was Brent Eastman, ASUW president. Leading social activities of the fraternity were the Bowery Ball, the Pledge Dance, the Sack Dance, and the Spring Formal.

Housemother, Mrs. Mary B. Lee

The Chi Omegas moved into a newly remodeled colonial mansion this fall. The exterior of the house was completely redone, and on the inside, the living room and front hall were redecorated. An addition to the house includes a trophy room, new dining room and kitchen, a study, and a new bedroom wing.

Chi Omega placed third in the Women's Division of the Homecoming Sing. Members are active in Spurs, Chimes, Phi Gamma Nu, Phi Sigma Iota, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Psi Chi, Rho Chi, Tau Beta Sigma, Wyo Staff, Ski Team, Who's Who, AWS, Mortar Board, and Student Senate.

Annual activities include the fall and spring formals, State Day, and Dad's day.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta was founded nationally in 1888 and now has 104 chapters. Theta Eta chapter was founded at Wyoming in 1913 and this year consists of 61 members and pledges. The sorority flower is the pansy and its colors are silver, gold, and blue. The officers for this year are Sara Lewis, vice-president; Jackie Igo, treasurer; and Sally Smith, Secretary.

TRI-DELTS WIN MANY HONORS

Tri-Delta claimed high achievement in many activities this year including the sorority scholarship cup for highest grade point average and first place for the women's division of the homecoming float. Outstanding members of Tri-Delta received such honors as 1961 Homecoming Queen, Miss University of Wyoming, Engineers' Ball Queen, Air Force and Army Military Ball Queens, three fraternity queens, eight members of Spurs and the president of Spurs, four members of Chimes, and three members of Mortar Board and the president of Mortar Board.

Other activities of Tri-Delts this year were Delta Work Day, the Scholarship breakfast and banquet, senior night, pledge night, and the Mothers' Day tea.

Tri-Delta's major functions this year were the pledge dance, the founders' day banquet and the Pearl Dinner Dance.

Farmhouse

Farmhouse was founded in 1905. There are 17 chapters in the United States. The Wyoming chapter was founded in 1950 and now has 32 members and pledges. Their flower is the sunburst rose and their colors are green, gold, and white. Serving the group as treasurer this year is Harry Strauch and the secretary is Arthur Bard.

Farmhouse was active this year in many agricultural affairs. Among these included members who placed high in the Little International Stock Show and representatives in Alpha Zeta, agriculture honorary, and Agriculture Club. Farmhouse also held a joint breakfast with the Fort Collins chapter at the Shirley Savoy Hotel in Denver. Social activities of Farmhouse this year included the Western Dance, the Pledge Dance, the Pioneer Dance, and the Spring Formal.

Gamma Phi Beta

Gamma Phi Beta was founded at New York's Syracuse University in 1887. There are 80 chapters throughout the United States. Colors of the sorority are mauve and brown, and its flower is the pink carnation. Gamma Delta, the local chapter, was founded in October, 1960 and presently has forty-two members. Officers for this year are Sharon Van Court, vice-president; Barbara Haight, treasurer; and Linda Briscoe, secretary.

During the second year on the University of Wyoming campus members of Gamma Phi Beta have been especially active. Besides hosting their pledge dance, December Formal, and Spring Formal, Gamma Phi's worked for their national philanthropic orphanage project. Members of Gamma Phi Beta are active in Spurs, Chimes, Mortar Board and Who's Who. The sorority is looking forward to moving into its new house on the south end of sorority row in January, 1963.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded nationally in 1870 and has 84 chapters. The local chapter, Gamma Omicron, was founded in 1927. The sorority flower is the fleur-de-lis and the colors are light blue and dark blue. There are 61 actives and pledges this year. The officers are Maggie Webster, vice-president; Lola Horton, treasurer; and Izzy Feltner, secretary.

The KKG's have been having several after-hours parties this year in order to enable all the actives and pledges to become better acquainted. The pledges, in return, held the annual Christmas party for the actives. The Kappas have been very busy making plans for the Founders' Day Program for their alums and their Rodeo Breakfast.

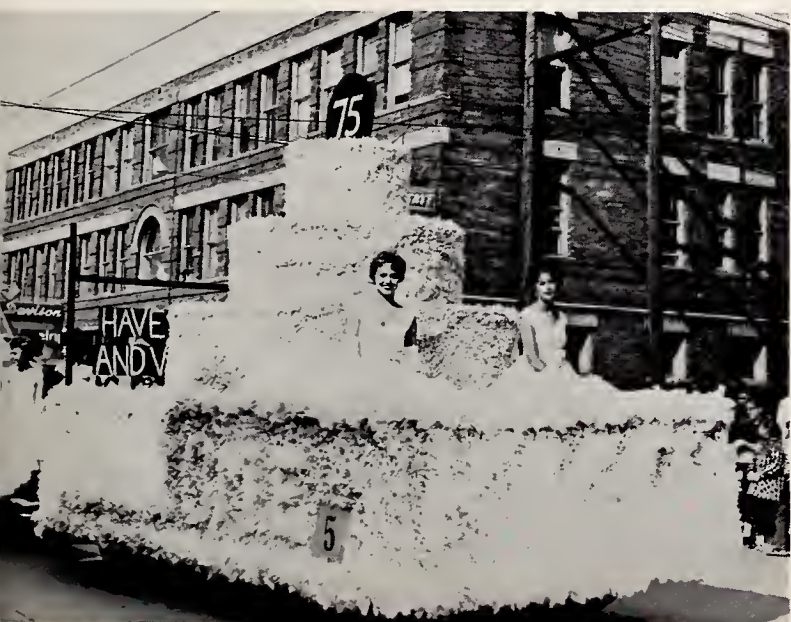

The Kappas did well during Homecoming, placing second in Women's Competition in both the sing and float contests. Maggie Webster, served as Homecoming Queen attendant.

Highlighted social activities this year include the Monmouth Duo, held with the Pi Phis, and the annual spring formal.

Kappa Sigma

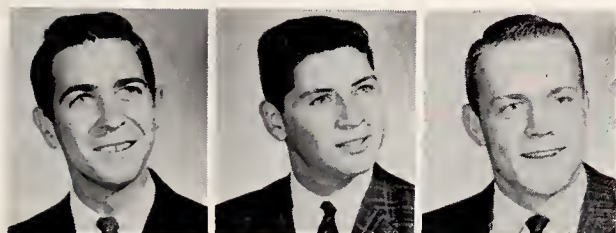

Kappa Sigma was founded nationally in 1869. On the Wyoming campus, the Delta Gamma chapter was founded in 1921. There are 135 chapters of Kappa Sigma throughout the nation while at the same time 81 pledges and actives make the Wyoming branch of the fraternity. The lily of the valley is the fraternity flower and its colors are scarlet, white, and green. Officers for the group are as follows: Jim Barr, treasurer; and Roy Jordan, secretary.

Jack Herrod, president

The Kappa Sigs were well represented in campus activities this year. They won second place in the Homecoming Sing during home coming festivities. Kappa Sigs also were represented with members in Phi Epsilon Phi, Iron Skull, Phi Delta Chi, Pi Delta, and Sigma Tau.

Socially the Kappa Sigs held their annual costume dance, the Stomp, their "Playboy" pledge dance, and their spring formal.

Phi Delta Theta

Phi Delta Theta, founded in 1848, now has 121 chapters in the United States. The Wyoming Alpha chapter was founded in 1934 and now has 65 members and pledges. Their flower is the white carnation and their colors are light blue and white. Serving the group as vice-president this year is Mike Hanna; as treasurer, Bob Velasquez; and as secretary, Chuck Thompson.

The National Phi Delta Theta's each year participate in the Community Service Day in order to do something of a constructive nature for the chapter's local city.

This year they were named a co-winner of the Community Service Day Award for contributing the most valuable allotment of time and work towards the betterment of their respective communities.

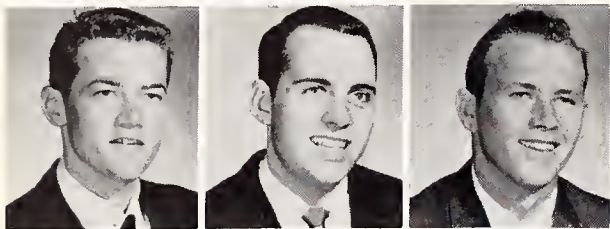

The Phi Delts have also been active on campus this year by participation in inter-fraternity sports and in homecoming activities. In the fall they threw their big pledge dance and each couple dressed as "Histerical Historical Characters." In the midst of the cold winter they had their Winter Formal, and finally when spring came the boys had the opportunity to show their cute knees at the annual Bermuda Ball.

Pi Beta Phi

Pi Beta Phi was founded nationally in 1867 and now has 105 chapters. Their flower is the Wine Carnation and Wine and Blue are their colors. Alpha Chapter, founded at Wyoming in 1919, presently has 61 actives and pledges. The vice-president for the group is Connie Steele, treasurer is Donna Evans, and serving the group as secretary is Betty Cooke.

Wyoming Alpha was quite pleased to be selected by the National Fraternity at large to be the regional chapter representative for the highest honor of Pi Beta Phi. National Fraternity recognition is accompanied by campus leadership and participation in numerous activities and organizations. During the past year the "Pi Beters", led by Nini Simon, had the president of Phi Gamma Nu, Kappa Delta Pi, Chimes and the Air Force Archangel, Army R.O.T.C. Sponsor Commander and the Vice-president of Spurs. Five Senators were Pi Phis plus athletic competitors in bowling, basketball, volleyball and skiing. During the first half of the year the Pi Phis ranked second in scholarship (by NPC standards). Many girls were chosen as queens such as Wyo Queen and attendant, Sweater Queen attendant and several fraternity "Sweethearts"; then Wyoming Alpha was represented in national beauty contests--Miss Wool of America and Miss Universe.

The main functions include the Monmouth Duo with the Kappa Kappa Gammas. The traditional chapter and date Christmas parties, the Spring Formal and last but certainly not least the Retreat in the spring to a dude ranch in Colorado.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

The Wyoming chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon received the distinction of being the 1961 Intramural Champions. This fall, led by Dick Titus, they won the men's division of the Homecoming Float competition in addition to being the overall winner. During the other Homecoming festivities they also placed third in the men's division of the Homecoming Sing.

Major activities of the "Sig Alphas" are the Undertakers' Ball, the Pledge Formal, the Bushmen's Hop, the KD-SAE Orphan Christmas party, the Homecoming Kilty Parade, Hate Women Week, the Spring Formal, and Founders' Day with four Colorado chapters.

You can always tell a Sig Alph because if they aren't wearing a sweatshirt with "Phi Alpha" on it, they are wearing a beard.

Little Sister of Minerva

The Little Sisters of Minerva is an auxiliary organization of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and members are chosen on the basis of their interest in the fraternity. This is its third year on the Wyoming Campus. Some of the projects of the past year include a chilli supper for the public after one of the football games, a car wash, hashing one of the meals at the Sig Alph house, and a Valentine's Dance for the Fraternity. Members can usually be found at the Sig Alph house for dinner every other Wednesday night and their meetings are held on Sundays at the house. These girls are also very active in campus activities such as Student Senate, Student Union Activities, Phi Gamma Nu, Student Publications, Homecoming and Engineering Queens, Spurs, Chimes, Iron Skull, Angels, and Corpettes, besides holding major offices in their respective sororities.

Sigma Chi was founded nationally in 1855 and now has 134 Chapters in the United States. Gamma Xi Chapter was established in 1931 and this year it has 83 actives and pledges. Its flower is the white rose and its colors are blue and gold. Officers for the local chapter are as follows: Vice-president, Mick Trego; Secretary, Dick Spangler, and Treasurer, John Bellamy.

Jerry Proffit, President; Mrs. Shelby Berry, Housemother.

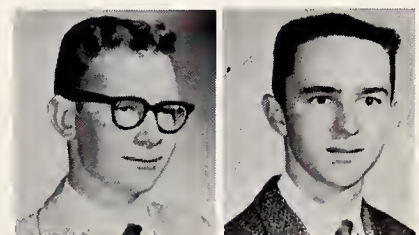

The Balfour Award each year is awarded to the most outstanding senior of the Sigma Chi chapters in this area. This year, John Maxfield, of the University of Wyoming Sigma Chi Chapter was the honored senior. The Sigs were not only active in campus activities but also in Civic Affairs when they held their Civic Day. Not to be outdone by the other frats, they held their annual Derby Days, which is very popular with the charming coeds of the University campus. To start the year off, the Sigs and their dates returned to their childhood days by attending the Baby Ball. In February, they held their Sweetheart Ball and in the spring everyone was so tired that they let their hair down and went "ape" over the Jungle Jump.

The Sigma Chi's got many chuckles with their "Keg of Knowledge."

Sigma Nu's proved themselves to be outstanding in most of their activities this year. They won the Homecoming Sing for the third straight year. They were the intra-mural football champions, and they won the fraternity scholarship cup. A member of Sigma Nu received a Rhoades Scholarship, four members belonged to Who's Who, and four received honorable mention. Sigma Nu's are in Sigma Tau, ODK, Iron Skull, Delta Sigma Rho, Senate, and Phi Epsilon Phi. Among the Sigma Nu social activities this year were the pledge pajama dance, the White Rose formal, and Sigma Nu Chanticleer.

The sorority row was awakened early one morning. It was the annual Revele Roundup, which is a popular event that is looked forward to each year by the girls. The Sig Eps serve coffee and doughnuts, and everyone has a friendly get together at six o'clock in the morning. Each year the Sig Eps have their annual pledge costume dance and their spring formal when they choose their "Queen of Hearts". The construction of a new house for Sigma Phi Epsilon will be completed by the fall of 1962. It's been said that the Sig Eps really raised the roof this year without a house-mother!

The Wyoming Cowboys of 1961--Skyline Conference Co-Champs.

Cowpokes share in Fourth Straight Skyline Crown.

Fresh from grabbing a share of their fourth straight Skyline title, the Wyoming Cowboys will find themselves in strange surroundings next year. A new conference and a new coach will combine to make next year's football season one which will provide even more color and fascination for the Wyoming football fan. A quick look at this year's sophomore dominated team will once more be in the running for another conference title when fall rolls around again. Both offensively and defensively, the 'Pokes once more were among the leaders in the Skyline statistics. Led by the running of Chuck Lamson, Mike Walker, and Bob Bisacre, and the passing of Andy Melosky, Wyoming gained 2,908 yards total offense, an average of 323.1 yards a game. On defense, the light but mobile front line aided by a strong secondary held the opposition to a scanty average of 167.9 yards per game. By compiling a 7-1-2 record for the season, the seniors on this year's team gained for themselves the distinction of playing on three straight championship teams. It is everyone's hope that next year's seniors can make the same boast.

Wyoming Loses Outstanding Coach

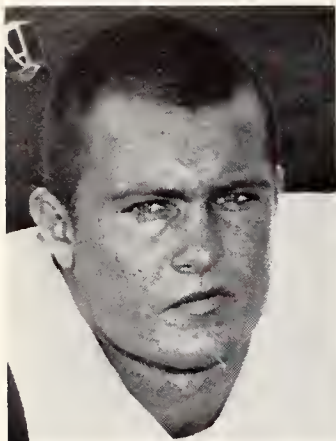

The name Bob Devaney will long be remembered by Cowboy fans not only for the outstanding teams he fielded, but also for the caliber of men he developed both on and off the playing field. The 1961 season was Devaney's last at Wyoming. Next year he will move to the head coaching job at the University of Nebraska, and this year's defensive line coach, Lloyd Eaton, will take over as Wyoming's new head man. Eaton will no doubt have a strong entry in the re-aligned conference next year. Our best wishes go with Bob Devaney to Nebraska and even better wishes to Lloyd Eaton at ol' Wyoming.

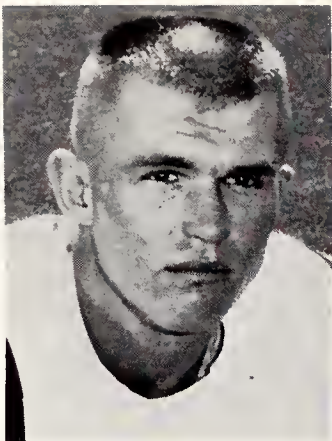

Head Wyoming football coach, Bob Devaney.

The Cowboys opened the 1961 season with a crushing 29 to 0 defeat over Montana at Billings, Montana. After shaking off the first half jitters and sparked by an early 46-yard gallop by quarterback, Chuck Lamson, the 'Pokes easily out-classed the Grizzlies.

Lamson, Wayne Linton, and Bob Knight ran for touchdowns and Andy Melosky passed to end, Tom Delaney, for the final tally. While the offense was having a field day the 1960 national defense champs contained Montana's backs and held them scoreless.

Following the Montana game the Cowboys found themselves at home the following week against nationally ranked North Carolina State. Rated as much as 42 point underdogs before the game the 'Pokes again fought off a shaky first half to upset the Wolfpack 15 to 14.

After spotting State fourteen points the Cowboy first scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Chuck Lamson. A bad snap by the Wolfpack center gave Wyoming a two point safety making the score 14 to 8. With 6:54 left to play, a one-yard smash by Wayne Linton and Lamson's conversion gave Wyoming its upset victory.

Lawrence, Kansas was the scene of Wyoming's next game as the Cowboys took on their second straight nationally ranked foe, Kansas University. Once more rated as pre-game underdogs, the fighting Cowboys from Laramie held the powerful Jayhawks to a 6-6 tie.

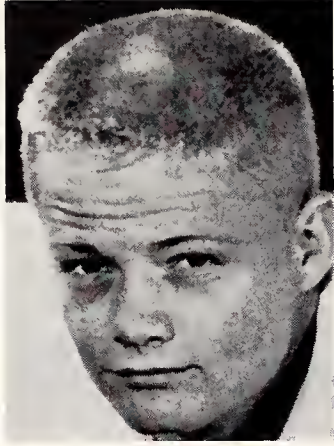

Backed up against their own goal for the greater part of the first half, the 'Pokes found themselves down six points at half-time. The second half, however, was all Wyoming's. Andy Melosky, playing for injured Chuck Lamson and aided by the pass receiving of Mike Walker and plunges of Bob Bisacre, engineered an 84 yard scoring drive. The rest of the game saw Wyoming outplay, but fail to out-score Kansas.

The game which ultimately led to a first place tie in the Skyline standings was played October 7 at Laramie. Future Co-champs Wyoming and Utah State fought to the Cowboy's second straight 6-6 tie.

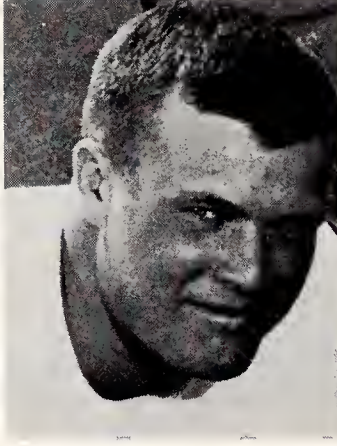

Generally outplayed throughout most of the game the rugged 'Pokes managed their only score on a 23 yard pass play from Andy Melosky to end, Lonnie Dunn. Although the Cowboys were outweighed, they did miss several scoring opportunities through fumbles.

Following three tough opponents the Cowboys found the going rough against the winless Colorado State Rams before winning 18-6.

Behind 7 to 0 going into the last half, the Cowboys, sparked by Chuck Lamson, finally caught fire and pulled the game out of the fire. The hard charging front line of the Rams kept the Cowboys on their toes all day, but touchdowns by Chuck Schmitt, Mike Walker and Bob Bisacre spelled the difference.

Homecoming festivities this year were highlighted by the Cowboy's 36 to 8 win over the hapless Cougars from Brigham Young. Playing before a capacity crowd under bright skies the 'Pokes clicked both on defense and offense to climax a most successful homecoming.

Playing in a snowstorm at Salt Lake City, the Cowboys completely dominated the statistics and downed the University of Utah Redskins 13 to 6.

In spoiling the Redskins' homecoming, the Cowboys were led by the quarterbacking of Chuck Lamson and the scoring and running of Mike Walker. Walker gained 90 yards and scored both touchdowns as Wyoming pulled the game out late in the fourth quarter.

Seeking revenge for a 21 to 19 setback at the hands of the Arizona Wildcats in 1960, the Cowboys journeyed south only to be defeated once again. While going down to their first defeat of the season, the Cowboys played a tight game most of the way. However, as in 1960, the men from Laramie, let up on pass defense and allowed the Wildcats to win the game in the final minutes. The final score was 22 to 15.

In the last game of the season the Cowboys cinched a tie for first place in the Skyline Conference by defeating New Mexico 33 to 7. Led by the brilliant play of senior Chuck Lamson, the Cowboys brought a successful season to a fitting close.

Meet Record

New Year's Meet--4th.

Denver Winter Carnival--3rd.

Western State Carnival--3rd.

RMISL Four Event--5th.

Colorado U. Meet--4th.

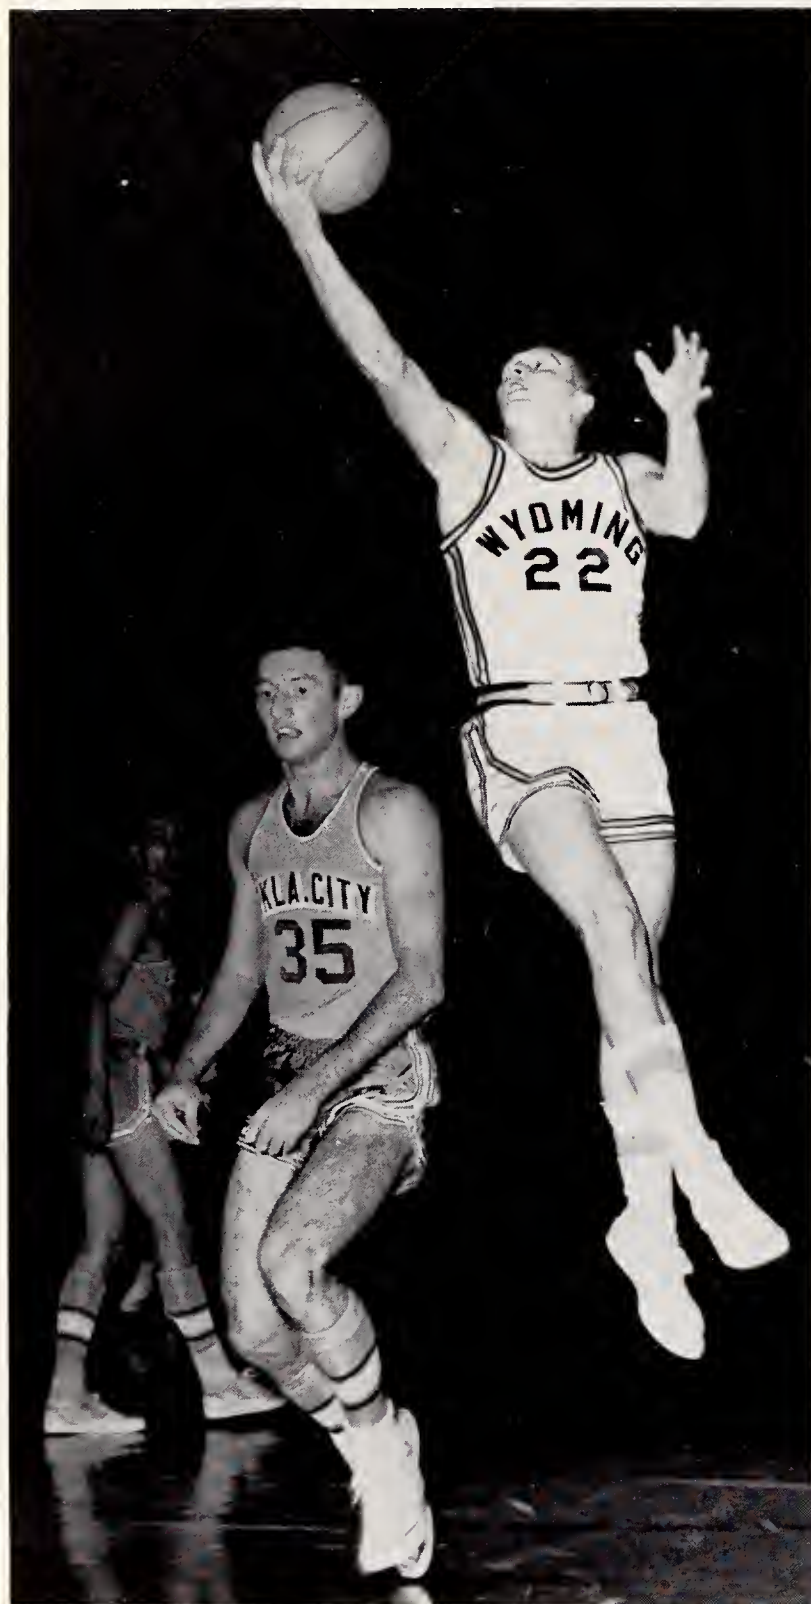

Quentin Skinner

The Wyoming University ski team, although unable to capture first place in any one meet, once more displayed the competitive spirit which is the trademark of Cowboy teams. Coach Wimp Hewgley's talented charges competed in five meets this year and placed anywhere from third to fifth. These are highly respectable finished considering the calibre of the competition of Wyoming.

The Cowboys were hurt hard at mid-season when they lost the jumpers on the squad. Del Heid broke his ankle in the Western State Carnival, Doug Dion was ruled ineligible, and Jon St. Andre dropped from School. These unfortunate events cut the skiing team to four members. Outstanding performances during the season occurred when Jim Guest was awarded the "Skimeister" award as the top performer in the Western State Carnival and Ole Skinner was runner-up to the award in the DU Winter Carnival.

'Poke Basketball Team Continues To Show Improvement

Bob Hanson's driving lay-up typifies the hustle shown by the whole team throughout the season.

Coach Bill Strannigan has a right to moan about this year's final conference standings, however, a couple of factors seem to point to the fact that Strannigan has a right to be optimistic about next year. Curt Jimerson, the 'Pokes high scorer with a 17.5 points per game average this year and forward Bill Stuart, are the only players to be lost to the team through graduation. With a starting team that has worked together for two complete seasons, Coach Strannigan should have a team which will challenge the conference leaders next year. As far as the past season is concerned, it was far from a complete failure. The Cowboys compiled a 9-17 record which was their best season since Strannigan began his rebuilding program at Wyoming. In the conference standings the Cowboys compiled a 3-11 mark which tied them for the conference cellar with New Mexico; however, many conference games were lost by very slim margins.

Following Jimerson in the scoring columns was center Al Eastland with a 16.1 overall average. Eastland came on strong near the end of the season and was the high point man in five of the last six Cowboy games. Bob Hanson, Fred Gish, and Ken Rochlitz rounded out the top five scorers for the season.

Throughout the season the Cowboys had trouble matching the opposition in rebounding which hurt in some of their closer games. Forward Fred Gish with 228 rebounds led the team in rebounding. Gish was followed closely by Al Eastland who pulled 197 rebounds off the boards. With Eastland, Gish, and forward Ken Rochlitz all returning next year the Cowboys should be hard to reckon with when it comes to rebounding.

Along with the starting front five the entire team, with the exception of Jimerson and Stuart, returns next year. Ron Long who saw considerable action toward the end of the year is the likely candidate to replace Curt. Bob Hanson and Paul Homar will be the other returning guards. Center Gordon Swanson and forward Mike Kaul and Jim Dalton will also return to add strength to the bench. Several outstanding players from this years freshman team will also be back to bolster the team's chances.

If the Cowboys can manage to stay away from injuries and at the same time not lose their scholastic eligibility, Bill Strannigan should finally see his basketball program come of age during the 1962-63 season.

The Cowboy's pre-conference season consisted of a tough ten game schedule. Against these now conference opponents the 'Pokes managed a 5-5 record. Wichita was the first opponent of the season and the Cowboys absorbed a 78-54 defeat. Following the opening defeat, Wyoming came through with three consecutive victories against Hardin-Simmons, Oklahoma City, and Eastern Montana. The Cowboys then were upset by Montana State College 76-67 before returning to Laramie to defeat Nebraska 71-70 and lose to nationally ranked Southern California 76-54. Closing out the pre-conference slate the Cowboys journeyed to Philadelphia to participate in the Quaker City tournament. While at Philadelphia, Wyoming defeated Niagara 69-59 while falling victim to Duquesne and Holy Cross.

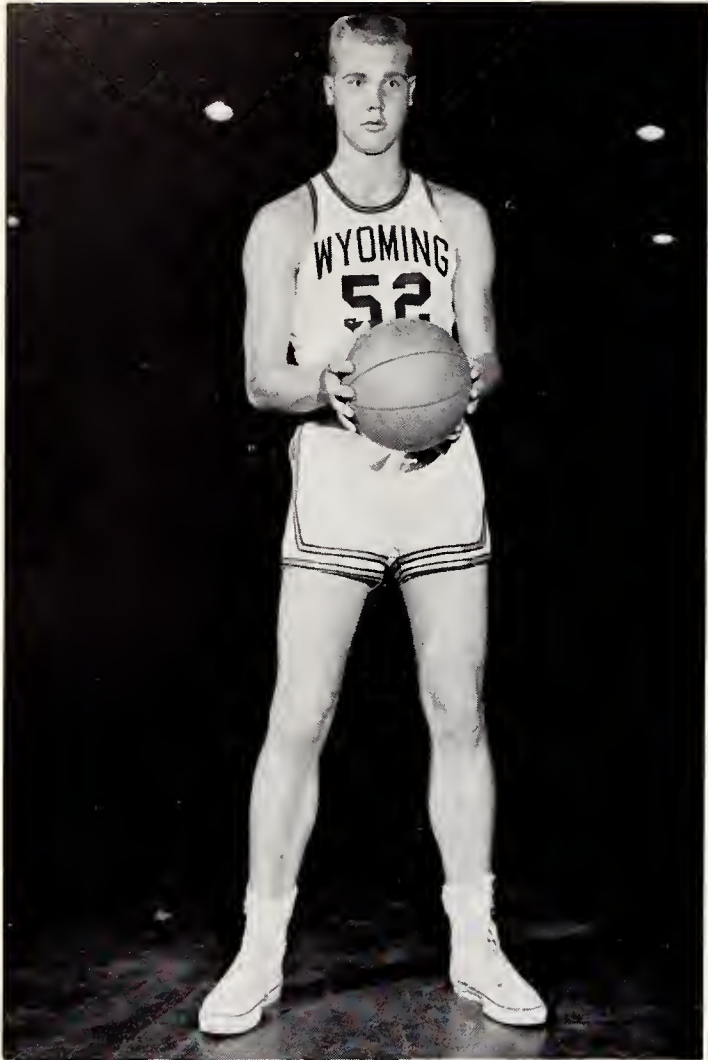

Al Eastland sinks a free throw as Bob Hanson and Curt Jimerson prepare to fall back on defense.

After compiling a so-so record against non-conference opponents, the Cowboys opened their conference season with a 59-54 victory over Denver at Laramie, but victory eluded them in the ensuing four games. New Mexico, Brigham Young, and Utah State handed the 'Pokes three successive conference defeats before Wyoming took a breather from its conference schedule and tackled the Air Force Academy in a two game series. In the first game the Cowboys were humiliated 51-39 at the Academy; however, upon returning home they nudged the Falcons 67-66 in a thrilling overtime game.

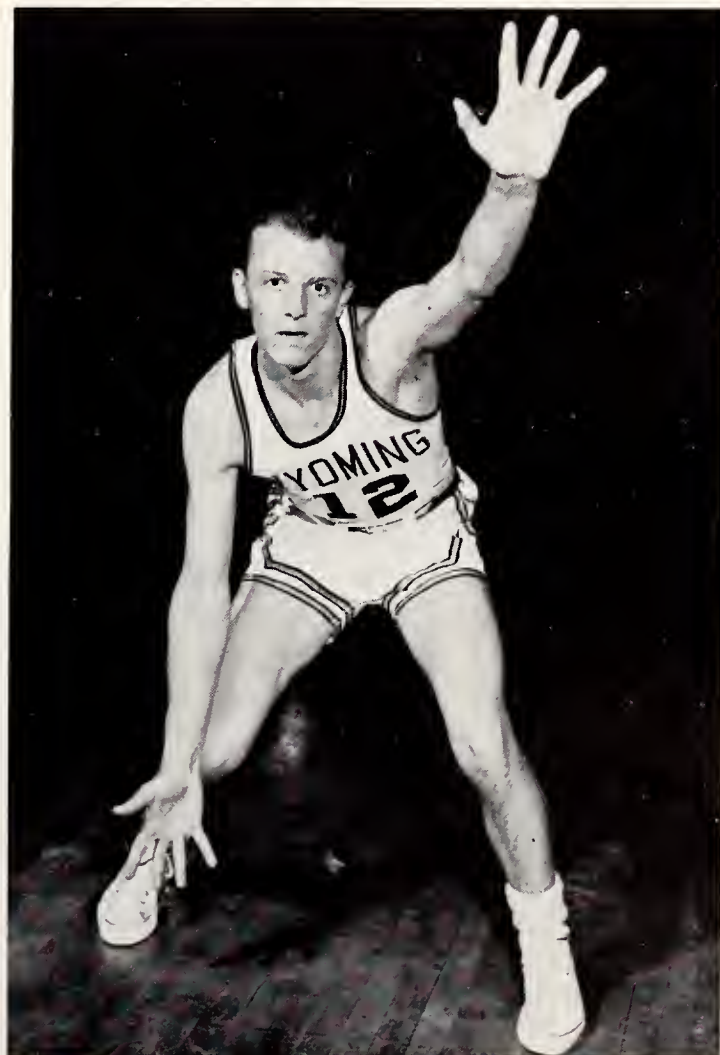

The next two games were perhaps the Cowboys best of the season although they met defeat in both. Playing against Colorado State at Fort Collins, the 'Pokes were edged 56-50. They followed this with their best game of the season as they fought league leading Utah for forty full minutes before dropping a heart breaking 84-81 decision. Curt Jimerson led all scorers with 25 points and Fred Gish set a field house rebounding record. The night following the Utah game was anti-climactic as Wyoming thrashed Montana 72-64.

The final seven games of the season were disastrous for the Cowboys who were down to eight players owing to injuries and scholastic ineligibilities. The 'Pokes managed only one victory, an 87-71 romp over Brigham Young. Aside from this one victorious night, Strannigan's forces dropped games to Denver (overtime), New Mexico, Utah State, Colorado State, Montana, and Utah. The final few games were in many instances close and a few extra points for the Cowboys would have meant a slightly better season. Next season, however, the Cowboys should manage to pick up those extra points and give this university a team in the first division of the conference.

Soccer XI Just Misses Loop Title

After winning their first five games of the season, Coach Charles MacMillan's soccer eleven dropped the final two games on their slate to lose any chance of topping the Rocky Mountain Soccer League. The Cowboys, however, came within three goals of a perfect season. In their final two games they were shutout by the Air Force Academy 1-0 and upset by Denver University 6-4.

George and Rodney Squires and Pete McNiff scored goals for the Soccer XI as they defeated Colorado University in their first outing of the season. The game was played under adverse weather conditions at Laramie.

Following 3-1 and 4-2 victories over Colorado

Mines and Denver respectively, the Cowboys closed out their home appearances against Lowry AFB. Paced by George Squires who kicked 5 goals the soccer team defeated Lowry by a score of 6-2. The final victory of the season came at the hands of Colorado Mines again as the Cowboys achieved a 6-4 conquest.

Listed on the 'Pokes roster this year were Gary Durdal, Spiro Coutis, Greg Engstrom, Spence Garrett, Joshua Chinwah, Vic Duran, Gunnar Martinsen, Rod Squires, George Squires, Enrique Traverso, Roberto Angulo, and Pete McNiff. George Squires, also a half-back on the freshman football team, led the team in goals for the season with a total of 16. Gary Durdal was a distant second with three goals to his credit.

'Poke Wrestlers Capture Conference Crown

Dr. Ev Lantz's Cowboy wrestlers took their 11th Skyline title in the past twelve years by edging runner-up Colorado State University 82-78. In achieving this unprecedented feat the Cowboys sent every member of their nine-man squad into the finals of the championship tournament. This was the first time the Cowpokes had managed to send every man into the finals since 1951.

The Cowboys emerged from the finals with four Skyline champions. Clair Argento gained his second consecutive championship at 137 pounds by gaining a 4-0 decision over Apodach of DU. Jerry Frude, the two-time NCAA runnerup, decisioned Parker of Utah 4-1 to gain the 147 pound crown. Dave Wight won his first Skyline title with an impressive 13-1 decision and sophomore Hugh Lowham decisioned Ken Hines of CSU for his first title. Skyline runners-up for Wyoming were Dave Hansen, Scott Caturia, Jerry Hines, Norm Peru, and Dee Mickleson.

The Wyoming wrestlers opened their season on a winning note by crushing Western State at Gunnison, Colorado by the score of 18-6. The Cowboys completely dominated their first dual meet while avenging a loss suffered at the hands of Western State the previous season. In gaining the victory, the Cowboys were successful at every weight except the 137 and 167 pound classes.

The Cowboys followed their opening victory with a still more impressive 24-6 victory over Colorado Mines. Once again the Cowboys dropped only two matches on route to the victory.

The undefeated Cowboys continued their winning ways against Colorado University by the score of 17-11. Wrestling without 123 pounder Dave Hansen and 147 pounder Jerry Frude who wrestled exhibition, the Cowboys had little trouble with the Buffaloes from Boulder.

Following two impressive wins over Denver University and Oregon State which extended their winning streak to five meets, the 'Pokes journeyed back to Laramie to face two tough Iowa teams. The wrestlers met Iowa State, the NCAA's number three team, and were handed their first setback of the year by a 16-10 count. The following night the Cowboys had a comparatively easy time with the State College of Iowa. Still smarting from their initial setback the Cowpokes throttled the Panthers from Iowa to the tune of 22-7.

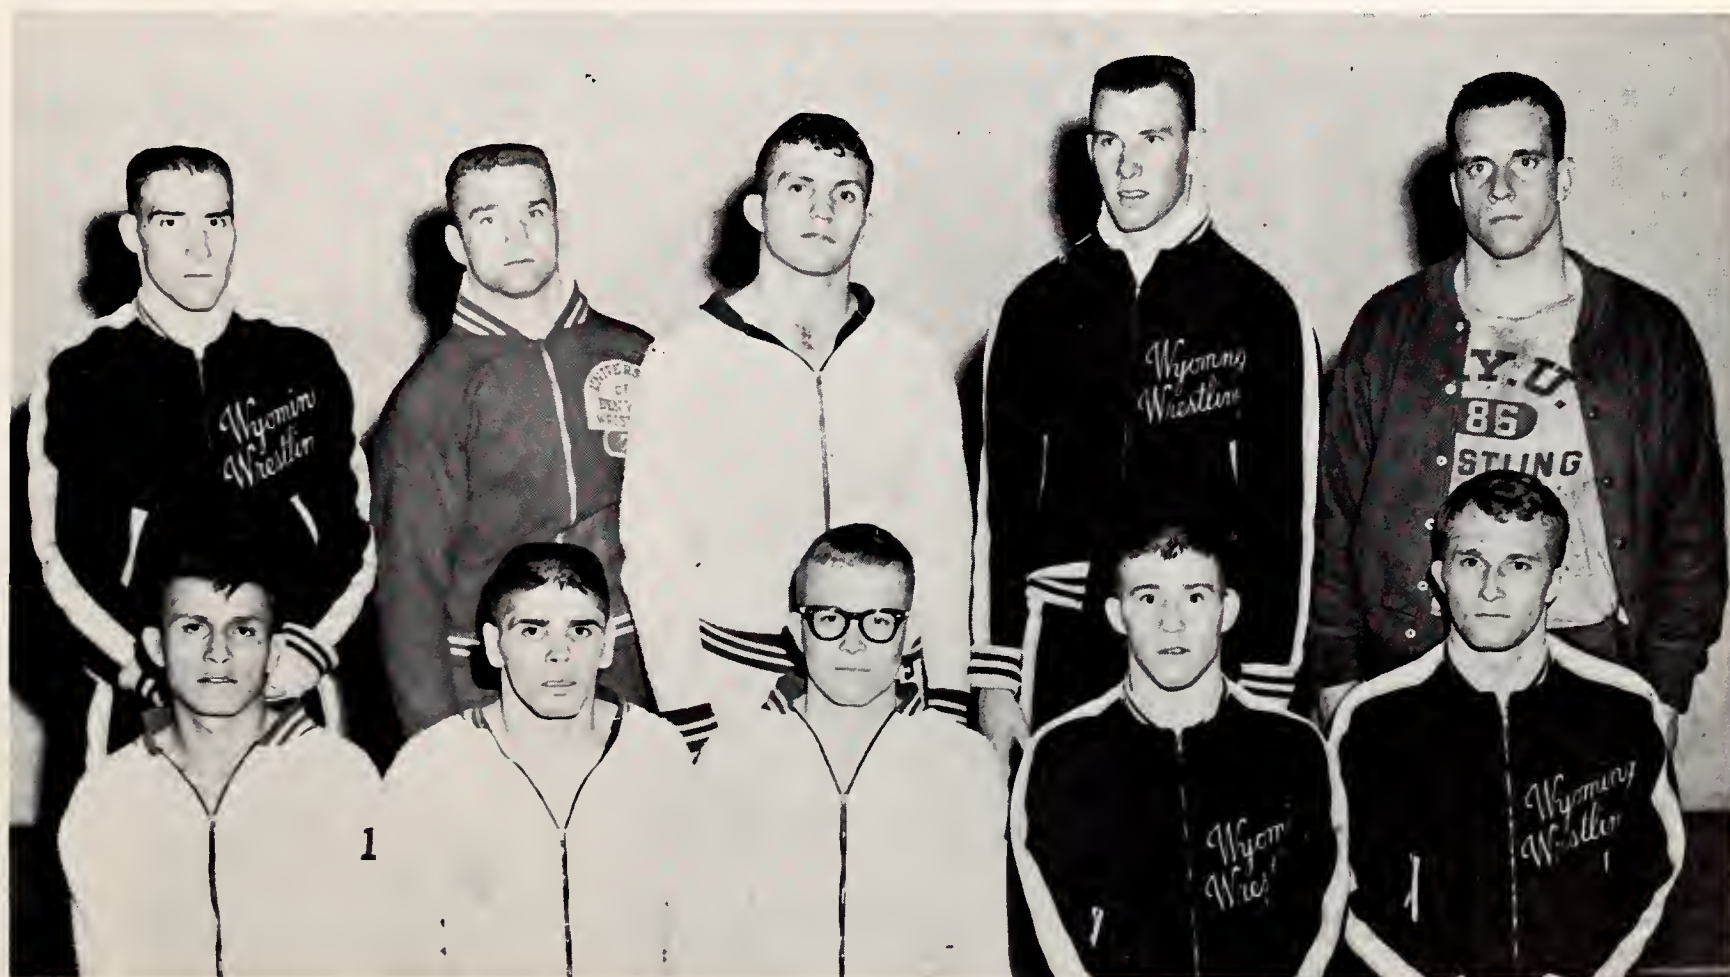

The first half of the season saw the Cowboys emerge with an impressive 6-1 record. The Cowboys completed their season with the services of two-time runner-up, Jerry Frude, who had to sit out the initial part of the season due to ineligibility. Following the Iowa series the 'Pokes prepared to face Colorado State University, the conference co-champs, in a dual meet at Laramie.

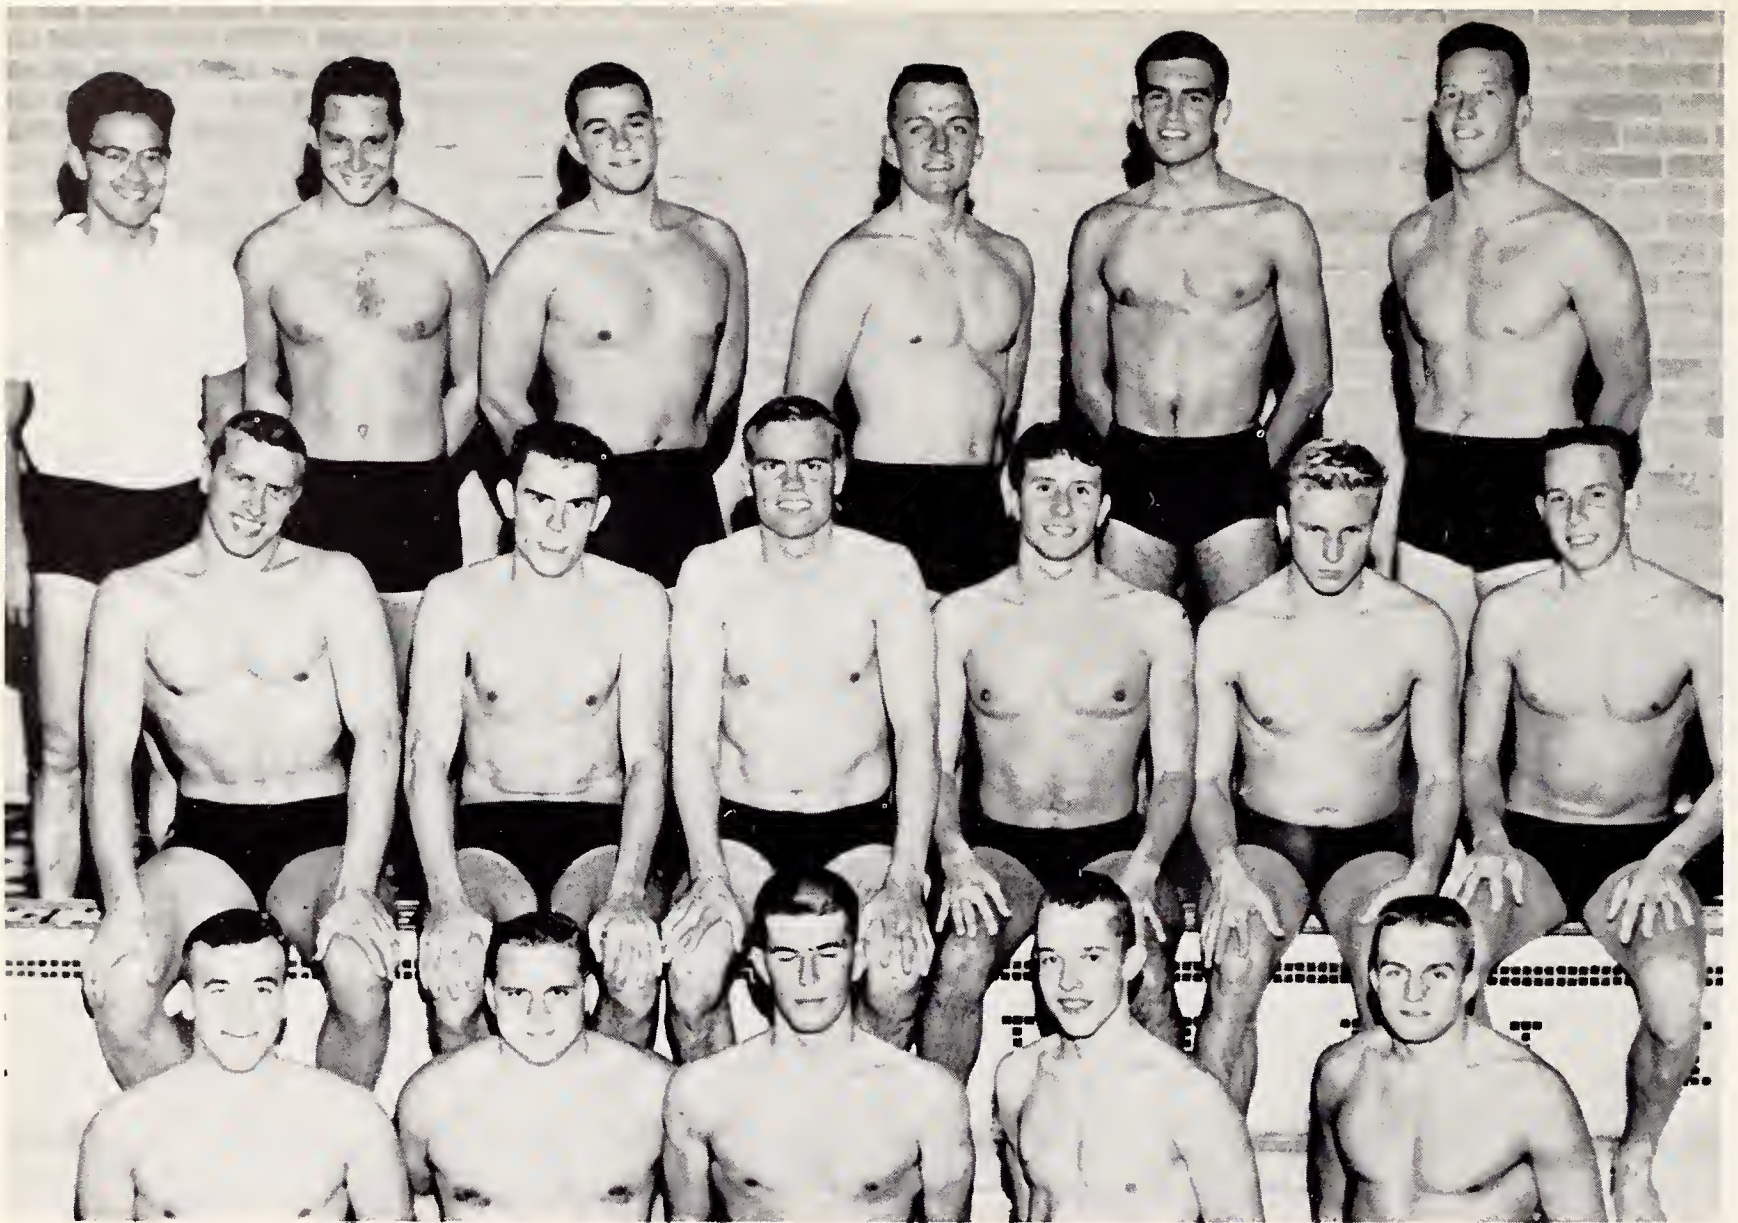

Although Wyoming eventually edged Colorado State University in the Skyline championships, the Cowboys had a tough time with the Rams in their dual meet at Laramie. The CSU grapplers handed the 'Pokes their second setback of the year by the narrow margin of 18-17.

The Cowboys gained their final two dual meet victories against their next two opponents. The New Mexico Lobos were easy pickings for the Cowboys who were out to atone for their recent loss to CSU. The men from Laramie ran up a 35-5 score against the outclassed Lobo wrestlers. The Air Force Academy also fell before the Cowboys to the tune of 17-11.

The Cowboys closed their dual meet season by fighting to draws against highly regarded Oklahoma University and Colorado State College. Before the league championships, the 'Pokes compiled an impressive 8-2-2 dual meet record. Throughout the season the comparatively young squad displayed a strong desire to win which they never lost. Perhaps their story can best be summarized by looking at their heavyweight Dee Mickleson. Although weighing only 167 pounds he consistently out fought much larger opponents before being eliminated in the finals of the championships. Wyoming fans have every right to be proud of this year's wrestling team.

Cowboys lose only one dual meet

Jerry Lipman, Wyoming's Skyline
200 yd. Butterfly Champion.

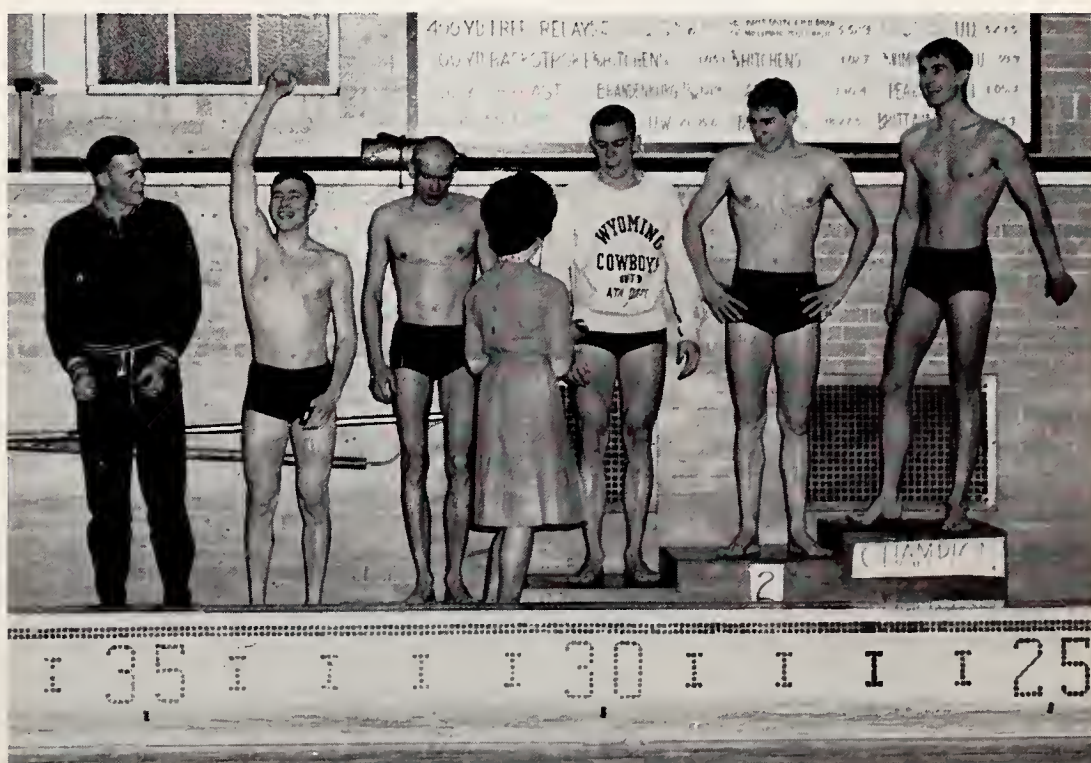

The University of Wyoming swimming team breezed through an eight meet schedule and dropped only one dual meet to the DU Pioneers this year. After thrashing Colorado School of Mines to the tune of 69-26, the Cowboys met their first Skyline opponent, Utah State. Led by Dennis Brittain who scored victories in the 220 yd. free-style and 200 yd. free-style, the 'Pokes easily out-distanced Utah State 60-35. Jim Wysocki, Jerry Lipman, Stan Booth, and Dave Dell also picked up first places to add to the team score.

Dennis Brittain set a Colorado pool record in the 440 yd. free-style and Jim Wysocki set a University of Wyoming record in the 50 yd. free-style as Wyoming won its third dual meet at Colorado. In a strictly one-sided affair the Cowboys placed first in every event to thrash the Buffalos, 70-23.

Coach Ray Chinn's swimmers preserved their unbeaten record by outdistancing Colorado State University, 64-31. Led by Jim Wysocki and Jerry Lipman, Wyoming broke four pool and school records.

Following a 57-38 victory over the Air Force Academy which extended their unbeaten string to five games, the Cowpokes lost their first dual meet to eventual Skyline champions, Denver University, 51-44. In their final two warm-up meets before the conference championships, the Cowboys defeated two Big-Eight Conference opponents. They faced Nebraska 66-50 and beat Kansas by practically the same score, 66-51.

Aside from dual meet competition this year, the Cowboys participated in the Wyoming Relays, the Air Force Relays, and the Skyline championships. In the Wyoming Relays the Cowboys were anything but gracious hosts as they finished first in their own relays. The tables were reversed later in the season, however, as the Cowboys placed second in the Air Force Academy Relays. The Falcons won their own relays as Wyoming missed first by a narrow margin. The finale of the season occurred as the Cowboys hosted the Skyline Championships at the Half Acre pool. The 'Pokes, however, could manage no better than second as Denver won the Championship meet.

Baseball Team Defends Division Title

The Cowboy Baseball team of 1962.

Coach Bob Jingling's baseball squad began its 1962 season with a swing through Arizona. The Cowboys with a new coach and plenty of new faces, hoped to repeat as Eastern divisional title holders again.

The mound corps was paced by Pat House, Jim Carothers, and Joe Strothers. These three combined for a 14-5 record in 1961 and were counted on for heavy survival this year. Behind the plate for the Cowboys was Dave Donachie.

The Wyoming hitting was led by Mike Rawson, a .432 hitter in 1961 and an all-star outfielder. Another all-conference star, back for another year was Mickey Kolbicka, third baseman. Other probable starters in the infield were Cliff Osborn, first base; Howie Maley, second base; and Dick Hawthorne, shortstop.

Along with Rawson, others fighting it out for berths in the outfield were Bill Schmidt, Bill Chrisman, and Mike Harris. Don Cadman and Mike McDonnell added strength to back up the Cowboys starting pitchers. Not to be forgotten were the catching duties of Don Heldt, and Joe Tate's infield duty.

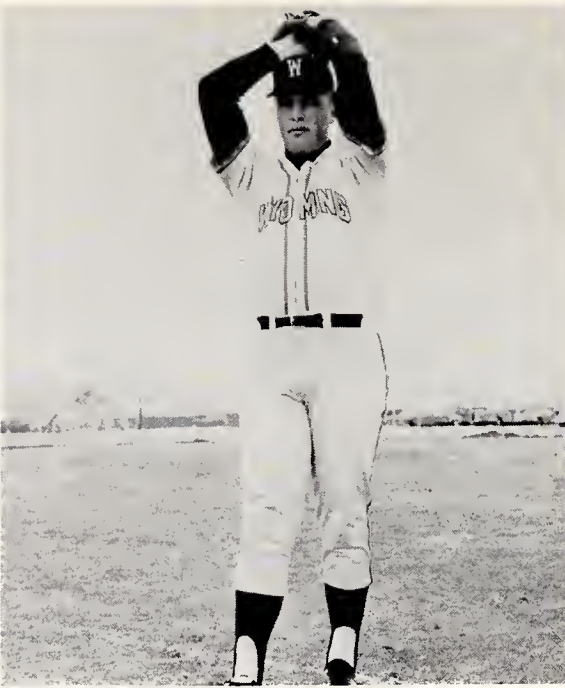

Summarizing the 1962 Cowboys team, their title defense should have been a success. If the mound corps lived up to its potential and the new faces in the line-up rounded into form, the Cowboys have a better than ever chance to have a successful season.

The Cowboys began the season on a sour note at the hands of Arizona State. The Cowboys dropped four straight games to Arizona State before hitting the winning trail against Grand Canyon College at Phoenix. However, as each game was played, the Cowboys showed marked improvement. Playing against teams which had already played several games, the 'Pokes began to patch up their defense and let it be known that they would once again be tough once their conference season got underway.

Tennis, Track, and Golf Teams Begin Spring Seasons

Due to a lack of foresight on the part of the sports' section personnel, pictures were not secured of the golf, track, and tennis teams before these squads left for Arizona and New Mexico to begin their 1962 seasons. To assure delivery of the yearbook before school ends, it is impossible to wait for the teams to return home in order to take team pictures. Our apologies go to those team members who are not pictured.

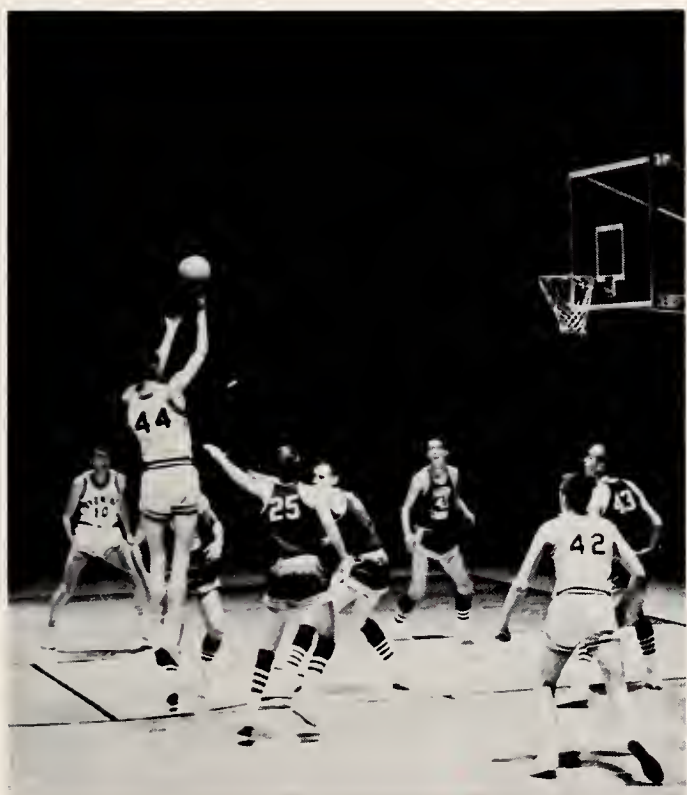

The track team has a new coach in John Walker and a strong desire to improve on their records of the past several seasons. The Cowboys, however, might still have several seasons to wait. Coach Walker has quite a building job facing him if the Cowboys are to one day become a feared track threat. During their 1962 season thus far the Cowboys have yet to place high in any meets. In their most recent meet the 'Pokes finished third in a three-way meet with New Mexico and the NM Track Club. Doug Spicer picked the Cowboys only first place in the javelin throw.

Coach Moe Radovich has every right to be optimistic about this year's golf team. Returning lettermen are Dave King, Rufus Hoefer, and Ron Long, all of whom are capable of shooting good scores. Backing up the first three are sophomore John Volk and freshman Mike Gutz. With any luck at all the golfers should have one of their best seasons of the year.

In their last match to date the Wyoming tennis team blanked New Mexico State 7-0. This victory put them over the .500 mark with a 3-2 record for the season. Coach Bill Bearley's team seems to have found a formula for winning quite early in the season, and will be hard to beat once they begin to defend their eastern divisional title.

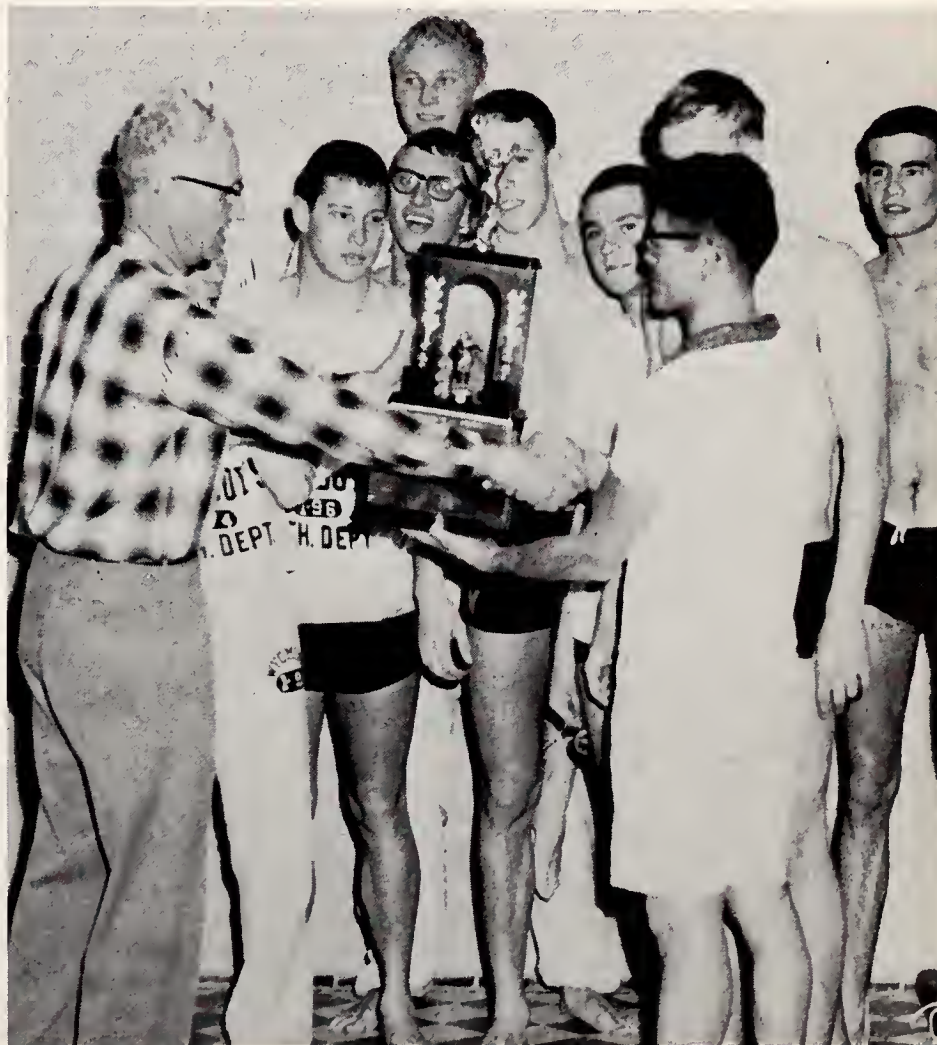

Wyoming's fierce defense halts the opposition's ground gain.

Military

Colonel John E. Laybourn

With the thought always in mind of "developing future leaders for the Aerospace Team", Col. Laybourn and his staff have carried on an outstanding Air Force ROTC program. This program consists of three major elements: to motivate, select, and educate future Air Force officers. Motivation is achieved by thoroughly acquainting the cadets with the functions of the Air Force, its benefits, and even at times its more undesirable points. To be eligible to become an advanced cadet, one must pass a physical examination and a qualifying test. If he passes these he must appear before a board of review, where the staff of the AF-ROTC department screen each cadet to determine finally, whether he has the potential of being a good Air Force officer. All the cadets who do achieve advanced status are then educated thoroughly in the techniques and responsibilities of being an officer in the armed services.

When a newly commissioned officer enters on active duty he is immediately instructed even more thoroughly in his particular field of study. Math and the sciences which lead to technical duties in the Air Force are emphasized the most, while pilot training, flight engineering, navigating and non-technical positions receive emphasis in that order. The Air Force feels that, by offering a young man opportunity to pursue his chosen field, they may induce him to become a career officer which obviously is the purpose of any training program.

Military education has been in existence at the University of Wyoming since the founding of the university; however, not until 1916 did the Army ROTC, as such, begin.

A cadet must take the basic and advanced ROTC courses and must pass both qualifying mental and physical examinations before receiving a commission.

General Military Science cadets are commissioned into the branch of the service which most closely coincides with their major field of study. After cadets finish their training they become a part of the Army Team and are in reserve, national guard, or active duty.

The Army has the supervision of the Varsity Rifle Team consisting of cadets from Army, Air Force, and university students.

In Memoriam . . .

. . . of the past 75 years of history made at the University of Wyoming and more specifically of the 61 - 62 Wyo Staff! We worked fast and furiously but still missed every deadline! We humored, cajoled and were downright obnoxious at times but finally we were able to get needed material for a deadline that was weeks over due.

Thanks go to the Pi Phi and Chi O typists who came over to give a hand when the going was rough; to the organizations who obligingly showed up for group pictures on short notice; to Dave Bonner and his BI staff for all the help; to the staff for pitching on Saturdays and week nights when the chips were down; to Joe Milner, Mr. Biggs and Don Merback for lifting the morale of the editor when things looked dismal; and to the following staff members who did the various and assorted odd jobs which are so vital to putting together a yearbook:

Colleen Bruns
Marjorie Lehmkuhler
Kay Sturholm
Bob Gerhardt
George Solomon
Carolyn Hodges

Carolyn Hunter
Judy Gardner
Mary Whitcomb
Pat McKeown
Joanne Simmons

This is your yearbook as much as it is ours. We hope you like it but if you don't, Well, you can please some of the people some of the time but not all of the people all the time.

The editors deserve as much of the credit for the work done as anyone and any praise for the yearbook should be directed to them.

If there has been anyone who was left out or a name misspelled, it was not intentional and my apologies. To be editor of the 61 -62 Wyo has been a great experience and to make the final shipment to Walsworth was even more of an experience. Many people may have had their doubts but the time finally arrived and the work is done. Thanks to all who made this book possible.
